

Cults and Religions

A Comparison of the True Christian Faith with Various Cults and Religions of the World

- Introduction
 - Why study Cults and Religions?
 - ✦ A very large number of people have been taken in by the deceptions of these cults and religions.
 - ✦ If we understand the beliefs of these cults and religions, we will be better prepared to evangelize these people and help them become disciples for Christ.
 - ✦ We always need to keep in mind that Jesus died for the sins of everyone including people who have been deceived by cults or religions and He desires that none should perish.
 - What is a cult?
 - ✦ Charles S. Braden defines a cult as any religious group that differs significantly as to belief or practice from those that are of the norm.
 - ✦ Walter Martin defines a cult as a group of people gathered around a specific person or person's misinterpretation of the Bible...
 - Mormons – Joseph Smith and Brigham Young
 - Jehovah's Witnesses – Charles T. Russell and J.F. Rutherford
 - Christian Science – Mary Baker Eddy
 - etc.
 - ✦ The theology of these cults contains significant deviations from historical Christianity, yet they typically desire to be classified as Christians.
 - ✦ A common theme within the cults is an extremely strong resistance to anyone who might want to depart.
 - What is a religion?
 - ✦ A religion is a system of beliefs that supposes to gain the favor of God through human effort.
 - ✦ There are many religions in the world and most of them have various requirements for adherence to ritualistic observances as part of their worship.
 - ✦ The world incorrectly categorizes Christianity as one of the many religions, but Biblical Christianity is about a relationship with God on the basis of grace, so it is not a religion.
 - ✦ Some of the religions we will study, such as Judaism and Islam, can resemble the cults in their treatment of anyone from within their ranks who turns to Jesus Christ as Savior.

- There is only one truth to be found among many lies, so we will begin by examining the truth of Biblical Christianity to be used as a basis for comparison with the myriad of deceptions found within the various cults and religions.

 - The Sabbath and the Lord’s Day
 - ✦ SDAs keep the Jewish Sabbath.
 - ✦ They equate the Sabbath with the Lord's Day based upon a misinterpretation linking Mark 2:28 with Rev 1:10.
 - ✦ Some SDAs believe that those who worship on Sunday have received the Mark of the Beast, but this is not the official position of the SDA.
 - The Sanctuary, Investigative Judgment and Scapegoat
 - ✦ The SDAs interpreted the 2300 days in Daniel 8:14 as years and predicted that Jesus would return in 1843.
 - ✦ When He did not return to the earth, a vision from God revealed that Jesus had actually gone to a “second apartment” of the heavenly sanctuary of Heb 8:1-2.
 - ✦ This began the second phase of His ministry wherein He began the “Investigative Judgment”.
 - This involves His evaluation of the sins of those who have died in Christ and believers still alive on the earth to see who among them are deemed worthy of eternal life.
 - This is based upon a false doctrine that asserts that the death of Christ does not take away sins, but instead allows them to be transferred to the heavenly sanctuary for evaluation.
 - Thus, eternal life is available only to those who have believed in Jesus and whose lives are deemed to be righteous.
 - When this “Investigative Judgment” is complete, the sins of those who have been deemed righteous will be blotted out as Jesus returns in the Second Advent and sends away the scapegoat.
 - ✦ The SDSs believe the scapegoat of Lev 16 is Satan who bears guilt for bringing sin into the world.

- Satan is not our sin-bearer, only Jesus bears our sins.
 - Satan must bear the guilt of his own sin of bringing sin into the world and inflicting sin upon humanity.
 - When Satan is sent away as the scapegoat, he is annihilated.
- Soul Sleep and the Destruction of the Wicked
- ✦ The soul cannot exist apart from the body.
 - ✦ People rest in the grave until the resurrection.
 - ✦ Eternal life is the result of salvation, therefore, the wicked do not live eternally.
 - ✦ At the first resurrection (Rev 20:4-5) or the resurrection of the just (Acts 24:15), the righteous are raised to eternal life.
 - ✦ The SDAs understand “destruction” in 2 Thess 1:8-9 to mean the reduction to a state of non-existence for the wicked after their resurrection.
- Branch Davidians
 - Background
 - ✦ A splinter branch of the SDA was established in 1929 by Victor Houteff.
 - ✦ Houteff wrote a publication called The Shepherd’s Rod that called for reform and reinterpretation of SDA eschatology.
 - ✦ The SDA condemned the new teaching and disassociated themselves from Houteff.
 - ✦ Houteff and his followers moved to a rural community near Waco, Texas, where they established the Mount Carmel Center.
 - ✦ In 1942 they became known as the General Association of Davidian Seventh-day Adventists - the term “Davidian” was used in reference to their belief they were part of the restoration of the Davidic kingdom of Israel.
 - ✦ After Houteff’s death in 1955, a group broke away and formed the Branch Davidians, alluding to the anointed “Branch” mentioned in Zech 3:8; 6:12.
 - David Koresh
 - ✦ David Koresh (born Vernon Wayne Howell) moved to the Mount Carmel compound in 1981.
 - ✦ While Koresh was there a man named George Roden became the heir apparent to the group.
 - ✦ Koresh led an “opposition movement” and gained a couple of dozen followers.
 - ✦ In 1985 they were forced to leave Mount Carmel by Roden and moved to a camp in East Texas.
 - Koresh attracted more followers.
 - His followers were known as “Koreshians.”

- ✦ Roden, threatened by Koresh's growing popularity, proposed a contest to see which of the two men could raise the dead.
 - ✦ Roden exhumed a corpse for the contest, so Koresh went to authorities to file charges of desecration of a corpse.
 - ✦ The authorities told Koresh he needed proof of the crime.
 - ✦ Koresh and some of his followers went back to Mount Carmel to try to find incriminating evidence against Roden and ended up in a gunfight wherein Roden was shot.
 - ✦ Koresh and his followers went on trial for attempted murder.
 - ✦ They were acquitted and, with his opposition gone, Koresh and his followers ended up back at Mount Carmel.
- The Deception
- ✦ Koresh had sex with a number of the women at the compound under the ruse that such an act would make the woman part of the "House of David".
 - ✦ Koresh fathered at least 12 children in this way.
 - ✦ Koresh claimed that he was the Lamb who would break the seven seals of Revelation ushering in the apocalypse.
 - This motivated the group to start stockpiling large numbers of weapons.
 - This caught the attention of U.S. authorities.
- The Siege
- ✦ In 1993 the ATF attempted to execute a search warrant, but a firefight broke out during which four ATF agents were killed and 16 others were wounded.
 - ✦ This led to a 51 day siege which ended when FBI agents tried to use tear gas to force the Davidians to leave the compound.
 - ✦ After several hours a fire broke out which only a few of the Davidians escaped.
 - ✦ Upon forensic examination of the bodies it became clear that many of the Davidians were dead (gunshot/stabbing) prior to the fire which is why the tear gas had not been effective.
- Branch Davidians
- No Trinity
- ✦ The singular "name" in Matt 28:19 points to one name of God, this name is Jesus. Therefore, God is only one person, Jesus.
 - ✦ The Trinity is a heretical doctrine.
 - ✦ The Father, Son and Holy Spirit only represent roles of the one Person of God.
 - The Son is the human body and nature.
 - The Father is the Spirit of God that indwelt this body.

- The distinction between the Father and Son is between the divine and human nature of Christ.
 - The Holy Spirit is the impersonal activity of God.
- Water baptism
- ✦ Water baptism is to be done in the name of Jesus Christ, not the Father, Son and Holy Spirit as per Matt 28:19.
 - ✦ The exact phrase "in the name of Jesus Christ" must be verbally invoked.
 - ✦ Water baptism is efficacious for the remission of sins – the washing away of sins is the result of Jesus' name being invoked.
 - ✦ A person is not saved unless baptized by this formula.
 - ✦ Immersion is the only legitimate form of water baptism.
- Requirements for Salvation
- ✦ Faith in Jesus (repentance of sins).
 - True faith in Jesus Christ will be demonstrated by obedience to God's commands and a determination to submit to his will in every aspect of one's life.
 - Oneness adherents reject the notion that one may be saved through what they call "mental faith": mere belief in Christ, without life-changing repentance/obedience.
 - ✦ Water baptism in the name of Jesus.
 - ✦ Spirit baptism which is evident when someone speaks in tongues.
- “Holiness” Standards
- ✦ Some Oneness organizations, considering current social trends in fashion and dress to be immoral, have established "dress codes" for their members.
 - Women are expected not to wear pants, make-up, form fitting clothing, jewelry, or to cut their hair.
 - Men are expected to be clean-shaven, short-haired, and are expected to wear long sleeve shirts and long-legged pants (as opposed to shorts).
 - ✦ Many Oneness organizations strongly admonish their members not to watch secular movies or television.
- The Way International
- Emerged in 1950s and became the Jesus movement of the late 1960s.
- Doctrinal Positions
- ✦ Denies the deity of Christ.
 - ✦ Denies the deity and personality of the Holy Spirit.
 - ✦ Denies the existence of hell.
 - ✦ Denies the existence of the soul.
 - ✦ Admittedly Antinomian - practice free sex.

 - ✦ The Myth of the Six Million

- All members are required to take the "Power for Abundant Living" course.
- Target audience: weak Christians and college students.
- Creciendo en Gracia
 - Founded by José Luis de Jesús Miranda
 - ✦ Miranda claimed that, in 1973 in Puerto Rico, he had a vision in which he maintains that he was visited by a pair of angels.
 - ✦ According to Miranda, the angels told him that the same spirit that was in Jesus of Nazareth had integrated with his person.
 - ✦ He moved his family to Florida and began preaching from the four gospels.
 - ✦ It was not long before Miranda started preaching his own ideals and teachings and he gained millions of followers in the U.S. as well as worldwide.
 - The Shift
 - ✦ In 1998, Miranda claimed that he was the reincarnation of Paul the Apostle and changed his focus into reading and preaching about Paul's gospel.
 - ✦ It was at this point that Miranda said that he was the Antichrist, but that Antichrist means "No longer following the Jewish teachings of Jesus as He lived in the days of His flesh."
 - ✦ Instead, individuals were supposed to follow the teachings of the Apostle Paul as taught through Miranda.
 - ✦ As part of this teaching, Miranda claimed that the Apostles Peter, John and James conspired to kill the Apostle Paul, so they could establish the "false Jesus" religion that required the following of Old Testament Law.
 - ✦ He began wearing the number 666 claiming that it was not the sign of the devil (and that the devil was already dead).
 - ✦ Even after this radical shift, Miranda still had millions of followers worldwide.
 - ✦ Devoted followers showed their support for Miranda by getting "666" tattooed on their bodies.
 - Miranda's Death
 - ✦ Miranda's ex-wife, Josefina Torres, claimed that Miranda had died in Texas on August 8, 2013.
 - ✦ However, on September 11 Miranda reappeared in public, proclaiming himself in good health.

- ✦ On November 15 of 2013, Miranda actually died in Florida.
 - ✦ Following his death, many of his followers abandoned the cult.
 - ✦ The remaining followers split into four factions with various positions and social agendas.
- Peoples Temple
 - Founded by Jim Jones
 - ✦ Jones started the Peoples Temple in Indiana during the 1950s.
 - ✦ He moved the Temple to California in the mid-1960s and began to gain many followers.
 - Socialist Shift
 - ✦ Began with fairly traditional Christian beliefs, but then Jones shifted the focus to living according to “apostolic socialism”.
 - ✦ As a result, in the 1970s Jones founded the Peoples Temple Agricultural Project, a socialist agricultural mission (commune) near Jonestown, Guyana.
 - In the summer of 1977, Jones and several hundred Temple members moved to Jonestown.
 - ✦ The members worked long hours at the commune and signed over most (if not all) of their money to Jones.
 - ✦ Harsh punishments were given to members who had disciplinary issues and members who attempted to escape were drugged.
 - ✦ Armed guards patrolled the area to enforce Jones’ rules.
 - ✦ Children rarely saw their parents and were taught to call Jones “Dad” (as did some adults as well).
 - Unraveling and Mass Suicide
 - ✦ In January of 1978 reports of these human rights abuses became public which raised concern among government leaders in the U.S.
 - ✦ In November of 1978 Congressman Leo Ryan (along with relatives of Temple members and members of the news media) visited Jonestown to investigate these claims.
 - ✦ Jones welcomed Congressman Ryan and his delegation.
 - ✦ However, when the group attempted to leave they were gunned down on an airstrip by Jones’ armed guards.
 - ✦ Later that same day over 900 inhabitants of Jonestown, 304 of them children, died of apparent cyanide poisoning, mostly in and around the settlement's main pavilion.

- A tape of the suicide was found in which Jones told Temple members that the Soviet Union (with whom the Temple had been negotiating a potential exodus) would no longer take them after the airstrip murders.
- Jones also told members to that intelligence organizations would "parachute in here on us", "shoot some of our innocent babies" and "they'll torture our children, they'll torture some of our people here, they'll torture our seniors".
- Using that reasoning, Jones and several Temple members argued that the group should commit "revolutionary suicide" by drinking a cyanide-laced grape-flavored drink.
- Some Temple members balked at the idea, so Jones told them "don't be afraid to die" and that death is "just stepping over into another plane".
- ✦ Some members escaped and reported that children were given the drink first and families were told to lie down together.
- ✦ Jones himself was found to have died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound to the head.

 - ✦ Once a mason has attained the 32nd degree he has the option of petitioning to join the Shriners.
 - ✦ Known as "The Ancient and Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine".
 - ✦ Shriners wear a hat called the "Red Fez".
 - The "Red Fez" was worn by Muslims in the early 18th century after they had overrun the city of Fez, Morocco.
 - The red color comes from the Muslims dipping these hats in the blood of the Moroccan Christians they had slaughtered.

- ✦ Must take a blood oath and confess Allah as God.

○ Doctrines and Beliefs

- ✦ The "bible" of Freemasonry is Dr. Albert Pike's Orals and Dogma of the Ancient and Accepted Rite.
- ✦ The goal of Freemasonry is to do away with religions, their creeds and doctrines and to establish a one-world, universal religion.
- ✦ To become a member one must be...
 - An adult male who believes in the existence of a supreme being and immortality of the soul.
 - Obedient to this being and worship him as the creator and ruler of the universe.
- ✦ Freemasonry holds itself to be the only true light and those outside are "lost and in darkness and need of the light of Freemasonry".
- ✦ Who is God?
 - Embraces all religious, philosophic, and scientific truth as found in all religious/philosophic sources.
 - Belief in a composite deity named "Jahbulon":
 - Jah = short form Yahweh (Jehovah)
 - Bul = Baal
 - On = term used in the Babylonian mystery religions to call upon the god Osiris
- ✦ Who is Jesus?
 - None of the 28 Masonic prayers are in Christ's name.
 - Christ is not the only way to salvation.
 - They do not confess Him as Lord and Savior.
- ✦ What about the Bible?
 - Not the Word of God, only a light among many lights.
 - Equal with the Koran and other religious writings.
 - Not inspired revelation, but the symbolic will of God.
- ✦ What about salvation?
 - Salvation is by works.
 - The term "Lamb of God" refers to a lambskin apron.
 - Upon completion of initiation each candidate is given a white lambskin apron.
 - This apron is to represent the works of the flesh, which will supposedly merit the Mason's salvation, when he stands before the Great White Throne judgment.

○ General Information

- ✦ Approximately 15,300 lodges in U.S., 33,700 worldwide.
- ✦ Approximately 5 million members worldwide, 4 million in the U.S.
